

OurCarClub.com.au is officially open for business. It is my web-based car club database management application.

The SMS feature is still under development, but the email service is now fully operational. Also, a robust back-up solution has been put in place that backs up all users' data in full twice a day, and off-sites it to a secure location.

If your club would like to get involved, please get in touch.